I can't believe it's over!! What am I going to do now??? I love Wimbledon, its so exciting! No harm to Roger but I'm really pleased Rafa won, he deserved to.
Now we need Andy Murray to get working hard on his game and his fitness and we'll really have something to cheer!
What a game that was on Monday night but there was no way he could get past Rafa, not yet.
Oh, and well done to Lewis for winning the British Grand Prix, it's been quite a day for my fav sports!!

I have to say that I enjoyed it too. I am of the same opinion and was glad that Nadal won.

And what are you going to do now? What about taking up tennis :laugh:
