Hi there,

I'm Grace McCarthy, 47, ace mum, super networker and all round good egg. Looking for anybody else out there to chat to about love, life and the universe (and maybe some business if you're interested) I'm very much involved with my son and his activities and continually improving myself by means of reading, trying new alternative therapies, etc. Love health and wellbeing topics anybody else similar?

Thanks Agnes,

how often do you tend to look at Pink Martini? I must admit I've only limited time but it certainly looks like a fabulous place to be involved in. Great colours and a couple of intereting articles about careers and businesses. What do you do?

Grace

Hi Grace

I am on the forum every Monday telling the world how rubbish I am at losing weight!! (see 'weigh in' thread) but I do have a look at it during the week too.

Have a look at my website (link below) I sell magnetic pain relief for people and animals and organic beauty products. You may find my website is not available tomorrow (24th) though because it is getting a make-over! A bit like 'Pink Martini' but it couldn't possibly look as good as this one does!!

What do you do Grace?

Agnes

Hi Agnes,

yes, had a look at your website and sounds great. I'm also in natural health and nutrition. I'm a distributor of Forever Living Products, aloe vera health drinks, supplements, skincare and cosmetics. Have you heard of them? Mostly it's humans who consume the drinks but you can give them to animals as well and also use some of the topical creams on them too. Organically grown and manufactured in the states. I've a stand at the East Kilbride Show this Saturday 26th July, do come along if you're free, it would be lovely to meet you.

Yes, I have heard of Forever Living Products, I had some samples once before we had similar products ourselves. I'm away to the Lake District this Saturday so I won't be able to come to the show, sorry. What kind of show is it? I'm always looking for new shows to have a stand at and East Kilbride is not too far away for me. Are you in that area then? I'm at Wigtown Show on Wednesday 6th and Stewartry Show on Thursday 7th August, would love to see you there.

Hi Grace

I'm a bit late in saying hello - don't manage to get on here as often as I'd like! Anyway, The Pink Martini is cool, hope you enjoy it! I did a show recently in Shropshire and the lady opposite me was selling Forever Living products, very nice! My mum bought some!

cheers
Kate

Hi Grace hope you are well. WOULD you be interested in finding out about a company who distribute a range of skincare products that are all Swiss formulated with the following features-

- botanically-based
- dermatologist tested
- never been tested on animals and formulated without animal products or by-products
- formulated without mineral oil

The US have experienced amazing results with these products and through hard working network marketers I am sure it will blow up in the UK!

Please visit my website www.dawnjackson.myarbonne.co.uk. If you and anyone else is not interested in the business but would like to try free samples please get in touch. I am always looking for new people to test the creams, especially people who 'know their stuff' as I do not want to work with a company that do not stand by the claims they make.

Hope to be in touch,

Dawn x
