Anyone went to see the film? I will be going on Tuesday and totally looking forward to it. Heard good reviews about it.

Don't know whether to or not - I was never into the series, but the trailer does look good...

Hi there,

I went to see it last Friday with my sisters in law. I watched the series on and off so wasn't sure about it but have to say I really enjoyed it - its funny, sad and entertaining all at the same time.

Definitely worth going to see. What I wouldn't give for Carrie's walk in wardrobe...(sigh!).

Cheers,

Paula

I ended up watching SATC yesterday and absolutely loved it. Laughed and cried at the same time. It was like watching old girlfriends. (seen every episode)
